The program of the NSDAP Recommended

Part 2

1 THE RIGHT OF SELF-DETERMINATION

"We demand the unification of all Germans, as a result of the peoples' right to self-determination, into one Greater Germany."

The National Socialist Party professes the right of self-determination of peoples. This is derived from the biological nature of man:

Nature has produced races and peoples in great diversity - this diversity must be preserved, because with it we protect and promote life itself. Nature conservation does not only mean the protection of extinct or endangered animal and plant species, but also the preservation of naturally grown races and peoples. We humans also belong to nature!

But peoples can survive and develop only as free peoples, as peoples who are free to determine their own destiny in their own undisputed habitat: Free, proud and healthy peoples in a healthy and natural environment, who realize the four freedoms in their völkisch life:

- * Freedom of the national economy
- * Freedom of national jurisdiction
- * Freedom of people's defense
- * Freedom of the folk culture

The right of self-determination is realized for a people when the members of this people, in a closed settlement area, determine their national destiny themselves and have realized the four freedoms!

By people we mean a community of people of the same blood mixture, bound together by common language, culture and history. Such a people is entitled to the right of self-determination. But like every right in this world of struggle and selection, this right does not fall into one's lap - nothing is given to a people, they have to fight for their rights! For this it requires a WILL - for the freedom of a people it is not enough if the people's comrades are biological members of the national community, they must also be aware of this fact and want it. Only a people which affirms itself becomes a nation - and only a nation can fight for the right of self-determination and preserve its freedom!

That is why the National Socialist party is a national party - it awakens the will to the community of the people, it fights for the community of the will of the people (nation).

On this basis, the National Socialist Party fights for the right of self-determination of the German people. This is done by the willful unification of all Germans who populate a common Central European living space. This is first of all a struggle for the soul of our people, for the reawakening of its national will. Before any state questions of order or even border questions can be tackled with a prospect of success, the willful unification of all Germans must be accomplished, for only a united national community can exist and prevail in the struggle for existence of the peoples!

The NSDAP strives for this, at first willful, union for ALL Germans settling together - regardless of the state borders in Europe. This nation, which then comes into being, does not have to take the form of a nation-state under all circumstances and from the beginning - a German nation-state, as history teaches, is at the same time too weak and too strong for Europe: too strong for the smaller neighbors and the powers foreign to the region to recognize its existence as a matter of course, too weak to enforce and enforce this recognition effectively and permanently.

Thus the NSDAP confines itself at first to demanding and fighting for Greater Germany as a nation, i.e. to fill all Germans with the will for community and to restore the four national freedoms to this community of the people. In this it sees its inner national mission of struggle and education!

2 JUST PEACE ORDER

"We demand equal rights for the German people vis-à-vis the other nations. Repeal of the peace treaties of Versailles and St. Germain."

The creation of a Greater German nation is not only a problem of the willful unification of all Germans. It is just as much connected with the problem of a just peace order:

Two European civil wars in the 20th century destroyed the European world power and handed our continent over to foreign powers as a more or less helpless and powerless protectorate. These suicidal fratricidal wars not only destroyed Germany, but ultimately all European powers forfeited their freedom, independence and self-determination, even to the extent that they called themselves "victorious powers". The only real victors were the USA, which ultimately decided both wars and then divided up Europe together with the Soviet Union.

But Germany, which fought in both wars for the reorganization of Europe from the European center, was hit hardest. This European task of the once strongest land power and the heart of our European continent remained misunderstood - misunderstood by the neighboring nations, who only hoped to destroy a rising competitor and thereby also fatally weakened themselves and Europe as a whole - misunderstood, however, also by many Germans, who often forgot that the imperial idea was never bound to a German nation-state, but contained the obligation to a just European greater order - in the tradition of the Roman Empire and the First German Reich! In the First World War, neither side understood that it was no longer a matter of national egoism, but of Europe, its world-dominating power and its ancient, magnificent culture, of freedom and the development of all European peoples in accordance with their species, which were increasingly threatened by powers from outside the region.

But when, in 1918, the balance of fate was tipped against Germany by the intervention of the United States, this problem became abundantly clear:

Germany was still a greatly weakened but large state, the powerful European colonial empires still existed seemingly unchallenged - and the "victorious powers" France and England liked to believe that they had reached a new peak of their power with their so hard-won victory over Germany.

But the warning signs were unmistakable:

The Western powers, without exception, remained heavily indebted to the U.S. and were secretly aware that no victory over Germany would have been possible without the huge aid provided by the U.S. - and no power gives aid out of altruism; behind it were American economic interests, which were hostile not only to Germany but ultimately to the European colonial empires as well:

According to their will, it should no longer be the European powers but the USA that dominate the world economy in the future.

And far to the east, a communist reign of terror had established itself in the form of the Soviet Union, which ultimately also had the subjugation of Europe as its goal. Under these circumstances, the rulers of the victorious Western powers bore an enormous responsibility for the fate of all European peoples when they met at Versailles to discuss peace with Germany. Many thoughtful Europeans were aware of this, and the peoples themselves longed for peace and justice.

But instead of that a dictate was decided in Versailles, which not only took away Germany's honor and her colonial empire, but in the end made her survival as a free nation impossible! The Versailles dictate could never be recognized by Germany as peace - only as long as she was weak and dishonorable, she could and had to accept it. Everyone knew this - only the consequences were different:

The Western powers concluded, therefore, that Germany must be kept weakened forever, but Germany's nationalists demanded that Germany regain its strength in order to be able to tear up this shameful victor's dictate afterwards.

In this struggle against Versailles, the NSDAP took the lead, as its program stipulated. With the founding of the Greater German Reich in 1938, the dictatorship was overcome and Germany was free again. Once again Europe had a chance to find a just order - but again the capitalist warmongers unleashed a war of extermination against Germany. Blindly or maliciously - Europe's rulers thus truly did not serve the interests of their peoples, but all those who wanted to destroy Europe and its spheres of influence in order to build the "one world" of the golden or the red International on the ruins!

If today the peace movement fights against the threat of nuclear annihilation, it must not forget who subjugated Europe, divided it and created the present life-threatening situation with the help of two world wars:

The USA and in its slipstream the Soviet Union. In Wallstreet sit the warmongers of the world high finance, who drove the European peoples into two world wars - and will not hesitate to destroy them in a third, if it serves their interests!

Only a European peace order and a European Monroe Doctrine (Europe for the Europeans) can secure peace. This means: The Europeans must make the space-foreign colonial powers USA and USSR withdraw and take their fate into their own hands.

The NSDAP fights for this within the German people. At the same time, however, it points out that a European peace order is conceivable only on the basis of the equality of the European nations:

Just as it once fought against the dictates of Versailles and St. Germain, so today it is fighting against the agreements of Yalta and Potsdam, which not only divided Germany but indirectly subjected all of Europe to foreign force!

Justice means: ending the injustice that Germany has suffered since 1918 and aggravated since 1945!

We are not primarily concerned with a German nation-state and its state borders - we are concerned with the freedom, unity and independence of our nation and its equal rights vis-à-vis the "victorious powers". These equal rights also include the possibility for Germans to settle again everywhere where they have lived for centuries and from where they were brutally expelled after 1945 in violation of international law - and that they can live there freely and according to their nature and tradition as part of the German nation. Only then will the equal rights of the German nation be secured and a just peace order possible, which is a precondition for freedom and the regaining of Europe's world status.

This is where the NSDAP sees its decisive foreign policy mission and its peace policy goal!

Der Kampf geht weiter !

Nachdem Hitler nach der Kapitulation der Wehrmacht am 8. Mai 1945 die nationalsozialistische Bewegung wieder als 32 Jahre in der Nachtigallzeit. Und zwar nicht nur in Deutschland, sondern auf globaler Ebene!

Interaktion von Wissenschaft, Vererbung, Vererbung und Vererbung haben nicht ausgereicht, das kann die gesamte Idee unserer hoch gebildeten Führer Adolf Hitler zu ändern.

Alle Nationalisten und weniger erfahrene Führer und Bewegungsmänner stehen Schicksal an Schicksal im Kampf um die Erhaltung unserer weißen Völker.

Der Bewegung ist zwar nicht gelungen, aber die Gefahr des biologischen Unterganges ist heute noch viel größer als in der Vergangenheit.

Der verantwortliche Gegner ist aber dabei, das Volkstum – gegen alle weißen Völker (?) – zu hegen. Seine Mittel sind Erziehung, Überzeugung und Konvertierung.

Ob "Hitler" oder "Hitler", ob in Wahrheit oder in Streifen, ob als Propagandainstrument, Symbol oder als menschliche Gestalt, aber die Idee Nationalismus ist eine Pflicht!

Molly: Well I try to still update the photo gallery, but mostly I've been concentrating on Adolf Hitler and the Army of Mankind (www.mourningtheancient.com/truth.htm) I'm at 21 pages now, and I have so much more to do. Studying WWII is an absolute minefield of information. You seek out information on one thing and find two more things to research. It feels a bit like you are an archeologist, unearthing the buried past. A past that they would rather not be brought to light. We can thank the internet again for the flood of information and pictures. Extremely rare stuff has

The Fight Goes On !

Seventy years after the capitulation of the Wehrmacht on May 8, 1945, the postwar National Socialist movement is stronger than ever not only in Germany, but throughout Europe.

Decades of mass murder, expulsion, persecution, and defilement have not sufficed to destroy the seed of the brilliant idea of our much loved Führer Adolf Hitler.

All National Socialists and other racially-aware citizens and racial kinmen fight side by side for the preservation of our White folk.

The movement has indeed become stronger, but the danger of biological folk death is also much greater today than in the past.

The desperate enemy is in the process of committing genocide against all White folk. The means are non-White immigration, culture diversion, and re-orientation.

Whether "Hitler" or "Hitler", whether in election halls or street battles, whether armed with propaganda material or on a battlefield of a different kind, every National Socialist must do his duty!
